SHRI VEDPRAKASH P. GOYAL:
SHRI RAJ NATH SINGH:
SHRI JANARDHANA POOJARY:

Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Indian money both Government and private worth 50 million dollars is stuck up in Cuba with the Cuban Government expressing its inability to pay;

(b) the amount owed to Indian Export and Import Bank and the amount owed to private companies etc. involved in stuck up;

(c) steps taken with the Cuban Government to recover the payment and the results thereof;

(d) whether there is any clause of international arbitration in the contracts/agreements; and

(e) if so, whether it has been invoked?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI BOLLA BULLI RAMAIAH): (a) to (c) The issue of out-standing debt owed by Cuba to EXIM Bank and private companies has been taken up with the Cuban side in the meeting of the Indo-Cuban Trade Revival Committee held on 18th - 19th November, 1996 in New Delhi, under the aegis of Indo-Cuban Joint Commission. The Cuban side have acknowledged debts of a level of US $ 36 million plus interest, with the understanding that the figure would be reconciled between the two sides.

(d) and (e) The loan agreements between EXIM Bank of India and the buyer in Cuba had provided for an arbitration clause in the event of dispute; as per information available, as there is no dispute, the invocation of this clause was not undertaken.
